

ILLINOIS SHOWS ITS PREFERENCE FOR GOV. LOWDEN

SUCKER STATE VOTERS GIVE "FAVORITE SON" HUGE EN-THUSIASM AT POLLS
YESTERDAY

NO DEMOCRATIC TICKET

Many Names Were Written Into Bal-

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—Illinois voters today
practically complete returns from yesterday's preferential primaries in Illinois today showed Governor Frank
O. Lowden leading General Leonard Wood by 66,731 votes as the republican choice for president. Returns were awaited from 533 down state precincts expected to run the governor's total plurality to 75,000 or more.
The democratic situation was muddled.
With no names printed on the ballots a great variety of names was written in some palpable "joshes" on neighbors and some seriously intended.
All democratic eligibles were honored with written in votes but tabulations failed early today to indicate a favorite.

Wood Runs Strong
There were two features to keep Governor Lowden's walkway from making it a dull election.
General Wood was enroute to Chicago today from the east. Gov. Low-den was campaigning in Kansas.
Precincts from which returns were missing were slow to supply the figures today. They were all down state precincts which were expected to yield pluralities for Lowden at the average of thirty-three to the precincts.

In 5,260 precincts of the state's 5,630, the vote was as follows:
Of 158,308. Lowden 222,982.
Of these totals, Wood obtained 105-408 of his votes in Cook county.

Senator Johnson's name was written in many down state ballots but election officials ignored the written names temporarily in their anxiety
to get the Wood and Lowden totals.
One was General Wood's victory in Cook county where the officer took 105,877 votes to Lowden's 78,344.
The other was the great written in vote tendered Hiram Johnson. In Cook county Johnson thus polled 40-881 votes. Returns from down state showed the senator had many followers there also but figures on his showing were not complete. One candidate for delegate from Chicago, pledged to Johnson was elected. He was the only out and out candidate for Johnson.

On the basis of the preferential vote, not absolutely binding, Lowden would take 35 of the 50 Illinois delegates elected yesterday to the national convention. Some of these were pledged to the governor. Wood had none pledged but carried the districts from which 14 were elected. Johnson took the other. Eight more will be chosen by the state convention.

Thompson Strengthened
In Chicago Mayor William Hale Thompson was decisively victorious in the fight for ward committee men taking 34 of thirty-five wards. The mayor's position in the party was strengthened greatly by the election.
Outside Cook county the vote was lighter than anticipated, spring plowing having a preference over voting.
The women's vote was light also.

In Cook county (Chicago) the following "written in" votes were cast:
Harding 105, Hoover 416. On the democratic ticket Governor Edwards received 171 votes.

Bond Issue Loses
Chicago.—Chicago yesterday rejected a proposal for an improvement bond issue of $34,500,000. The recent statement of the federal reserve banks that this district is the most extravagant in the country was the principal argument used by campaigners against the issue.

TAKE STUTZ SECURITIES OFF THE STOCK EXCHANGE

By United Press Leased Wire
New York.—The Stutz Motor Company today requested the board of governors of the New York stock exchange to remove Stutz stock from the list at once. The company also withdrew its application for listing
twenty thousand new shares.

This action followed the suspension of trading in Stutz stock by the board of governors and resignation of Allan Ryan, chairman of the board of directors of the Stutz company,
from his membership in the exchange.
"Corner" on the stock was reported to exist before trade suspension.

In his letter today asking withdrawal of Stutz securities from the list, Ryan said holders of Stutz stock were deprived of a market by suspension of trading and an incalculable injury inflicted.

"We are unwilling to suffer any longer this injustice to our stockholders," Ryan stated.

girls.

Prepare For A Survey Of County Needs

Red Cross Workers Will Meet in Appleton and Kaukauna Friday and Saturday to Discuss Plans
For The Community Survey

Plans for the community survey to be undertaken by the Red Cross will be discussed at several meetings Friday and Saturday when representatives of the division headquarters office in Chicago will be here to meet local workers.

The first meeting will be held at four o'clock Friday afternoon when Appleton workers will meet the Central Division representatives at Peabody hall. At eight o'clock that evening a meeting of the Kaukauna branch will be held in Kaukauna. The final meeting is scheduled for one o'clock Saturday afternoon in the council chambers of the city hall
when representatives of the county will be present.

One of the principal purposes of these meetings is to speed up the peace time program which is to be based on the findings of the community survey to be started early in May under the direction of Central Division experts.

The survey is to be made under seven heads: General characteristics;
health, housing and sanitation; family welfare; recreation; education and culture; juvenile delinquency.

The object of the survey is to bring out the needs of the community in those seven fields. It is feared that much of the effectiveness of social and health work in the county is lost because of frequent overlapping of energies of the various organizations interested in public welfare.

It is said the survey has the endorsement of all welfare agencies in the county and it is generally realized that this is the opportune time
for putting a broader cooperative program into operation. The survey will be of benefit to all residents of the county, as well as to the agencies and organizations participating in the work.

WOOD STILL HAS THE EDGE IN RACE FOR C. O. P. DELEGATES

WOOD MANAGERS CONFIDENT THAT HE WILL CONTROL MA-JORITY OF MEN THIS FAR ELECTED.

(By Harold D. Jacobs.)
By United Press Leased Wire
New York.—Despite Governor
Frank O. Lowden's victory in the Illinois primary, Major General Leonard Wood apparently continued to lead today in the race for the republican presidential nomination.

Assuming that 35 Illinois delegates will vote for Lowden, 14 for Wood and 1 for Senator Hiram Johnson,
the standing on instructed delegates
today would be:

Wood 61; Lowden 47; Johnson 41.
Eight additional delegates will be chosen in Illinois at the state conventions later.

On the basis of claims of support
of unpledged delegates—figuring that Kansas' 20 would go to Wood and Wisconsin's 26 to Johnson after the early ballots for Governor Henry Allen and Senator Robert La Follette respectively, the standing would be:
Wood 137; Lowden 105; Nicholas
Murray Butler of New York 88; Johnson 67; Judge J. C. Pritchard of North Carolina 22.

To political observers the real surprise of the Illinois republican primary was the large number of "written in" ballots for Johnson. The only names printed on the ballots were those of Lowden and Wood, but incomplete returns showed that Johnson, who had made no campaign in Illinois, had polled about forty thousand votes. At Johnson's eastern headquarters here yesterday it was stated that he might possibly get 5,000
"written in" ballots.

The name of Herbert Hoover also was written in on some republican ballots.

IRISH PROTEST STRIKE IS TO BE CONTINUED

By United Press Leased Wire
Dublin.—Labor executives today ordered a continuation of the general strike, called in protest against alleged British mistreatment of Sinn Fein prisoners.

All workers in Ulster, except unionists, had joined the strikers, the laborites claimed. Lendonderry was tied up, they said.

More than 50,000 workers were out in Dublin and 200,000 throughout Ireland, labor leaders claimed.
Strikers staged a huge demonstration in front of Mount Joy prison,
where the hunger striking Sinn Feiners are confined, yesterday afternoon. Troops with bayonets fixed to their rifles guarded the prison.

As part of the demonstration 20-000 persons barred their heads in a prayer for the imprisoned Sinn Feiners.

DISCUSS RAIL STRIKE

Attorney General Palmer Expected
to Issue Important Statement Today—Four New Secretaries Attend the Meeting

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—The government's course of action to halt the "outlaw"
railroad strike was shaped at a meeting of President Wilson and his cabinet today.

Attorney General Palmer, it was learned authoritatively, reported that the department of justice had evidence that the communist party was behind the strike and steps to deal with this influence was authorized.
Arrests may be made before the end of the day.

It was learned authoritatively that one of the things Palmer told the cabinet was that the department of justice has evidence to support the charge that the communist international party of Russia, dominated by Lenin and Trotsky is the moving force behind the railroad strike. The nature of the evidence was explained
to the president and his cabinet.

The president soon after the meeting issued a hurry call for members of the railroad wage board to come to Washington and be ready to function.

Wilson's telegram read:
"I sincerely trust that it will be possible for you at once to come to Washington and assume duty as members of railroad board. It is believed that the senate will confirm nominations today."

The senate, however, after an hour's debate failed to confirm any of the nominations and action went over until tomorrow.

Washington.—President Wilson
and his cabinet today heard Attorney General Palmer's report on the railroad strike, discussed the strike and reported some conclusions. Palmer said following the cabinet meeting.
What the conclusions were Palmer
would not say.

Palmer intimated he might make a statement on the strike situation
before the day is over.

Other cabinet members said that the strike situation was practically
the sole topic of discussion.

The cabinet meeting lasted for an hour and a half. It was the president's first cabinet meeting in eight months.

"The spirit of the president was fine," said Secretary Daniels. "He laughed frequently and related several humorous stories."

The president was attired in a sweater coat and grey trousers which he is wont to wear on all similar occasions, members said.

The study in which the gathering
took place was fitted with a long table similar to that of the regular cabinet room in the executive offices
and the members sat around it.

There were four new members at today's session. Secretaries Colby, Alexander, Payne and Merritt.

Soon after the cabinet meeting
the president telegraphed members of the railroad labor board, appointed yesterday, to come to Washington at once, prepared to take up the wage controversies as soon as their nominations were confirmed by the senate.

At the same time the Senate interstate commerce commission announced it had ordered the nominations reported favorably and the senate went into executive session presumably to discuss them.

It was at Admiral Grayson's suggestion that the meeting was not continued longer. He entered the chamber several times, being anxious as to the president's condition under the unusual strain of the important conference, it was learned.

The president showed no ill effects whatever, Grayson said, and it is probable that meetings will be held at least once a week from this time on until the president's departure for his summer home.

WOMAN'S CLUB WANTS COUNTY FARM AGENT

The Home Economics department of the Appleton Woman's club will meet at four o'clock next Wednesday afternoon at the Vocational school.
A committee has been appointed to meet with the county board to discuss employment of a county agent.
Another committee has been appointed to canvas the schools of the city and encourage the school children to cultivate gardens. The city market, which the department hopes to establish here, will provide a market
for the products the children raise.
Reports by the committees will be heard at the meeting Wednesday.

Today, the board of regents tended the chair to Coffman and he accepted. Coffman has been dean of the college of education at Minnesota since 1915. He was a professor at Illinois three years before coming here.

Frank Gorritz suffered a sprained

STREET PAVING IS DEFERRED BY THE NEW COUNCIL

FIX DATES FOR CLEAN-UP

May 1 to May 15 Designated as
"Clean-up" Period—George Limpert and Charles Schrimpf Named Assessors Last Night

Appointment of committees and officials, consideration of paving and sewer bids and the selection of a clean-up period for Appleton were the principal matters disposed of at the common council meeting last night. Only minor matters were actually before adjourning the old council, everything of importance being referred to the council-elect.
There was little formality in the inauguration of the new council as only one alderman, J. T. McAnn, had to be seated, succeeding Mike Steinhauser.

Everybody will be required to remove all ashes, rubbish and garbage
from between May 1 and May 15, according to the "clean-up" resolution.
Failure to do so will cause removal
by the city at the expense of the taxpayer.

All paving bids were rejected following a lengthy session of the council as committee of the whole. Because of the high cost of doing the work this season, no agreement could be reached as to whether concrete or asphalt should be used. Other consideration entered in leaving the matter in such uncertain state that it was decided to defer the matter of paving until later. Bids were also submitted for the construction of sewers in several wards and the contract awarded to R. J. Wilson, whose figure was $10,119.98.

Naming of assessors was also taken up by the committee of the whole,
and appointments made. George Limpert was named for three years
and Charles Schrimpf for two years.
They also increased the salary of Elmer O'Keefe, assistant to the city engineer, from $90 to $115 per month.

A petition of property owners for water service on South Division between Maple and Calumet streets was referred to the water commission. Permission was given the fire department to place fireless tires on the new fire truck at a cost of $300.
A protest filed by several people and firms against the erection of billboards at the corner of Washington and Johnson streets was discussed and referred to the police and license committee. A request for cindering Washington from Catherine
to Rankin streets was granted.

Reports of the city nurse and school nurse for the month of March were read and placed on file. Bids for sewer construction and paving
were also presented and were referred to the new council, who later went into committee of the whole to discuss them before final action was taken. A unanimous vote of thanks to the mayor and city clerk for their faithful services during the past administration resulted in the passing of cigars by the officials mentioned,
and the old council then adjourned
sine die.

Alderman Laabs was elected president of the new council by a vote of 9 to 3 over Alderman Wood. Other appointments confirmed placed the same men at the head of the city departments with the exception of assessor; his appointment was deferred until later.

The appointments were as follows:
City clerk, E. L. Williams; city engineer and street commissioner, Fred Weigert; commissioner of public works, J. C. Pfeil; city physician, Dr. H. E. Ellsworth; sealer of weights and measures, Joseph Hodgins; weighmaster, John F. Rose; janitor, William Sander.

Mayor Hawes recommended the name of Henry H. Brown to succeed Henry Jones as supervisor, which
the council unanimously confirmed.
Committee appointments were then read by the mayor and confirmed by the council as follows:

Finance, Aldermen Laabs, Fose, Fiedler, McCann, McGilgan, Wood,
Fire and Water, Aldermen Fiedler, Hansen, Mayer, Lappen, Murphy and Smith.

Streets and Bridges, Aldermen Fose, Beske, Laabs, McCann, Hansen and McGilgan.

Public grounds and buildings, Aldermen Beske, Murphy and Hansen.

Street lighting, Aldermen Wood, Meyer, Beske, Lappen, Murphy and Smith.

Poor, Aldermen McGilgan, Lappen, Fose, Wood, Beske and Smith.

Ordinance, Aldermen Hansen,
Fiedler and McCann.

Police and License, Aldermen Mayer, Laabs and McCann.

Judiciary, Aldermen Lappen,
Wood and Fiedler.

Appointment of assessor, bids for paving and sewer work and the request for increasing the salary of Elmer O'Keefe, assistant to the city engineer, were referred to the committee of the whole, which then went into session.

Joseph Holladay, an employee of the Combined Locks Paper company, had his wrist burned Tuesday while removing clinkers from a boiler, his arm coming in contact with the red hot iron.

Several Appleton people are planning to attend the novelty balloon dancing party at Kaukauna Friday evening. Music will be furnished by the Apollo orchestra of this city.

Mediation Is Sought To End Mex. Revolt

Leaders in Sonora Secession Movement Are Called Rebels by National Government—Want to Get Together to Discuss Issues.

Mexico City.—Federal troops have begun their advance upon Sonora.
General Dieguez commanding the federal forces, said here today.

"The Sonora clique has achieved what they have been planning for some time—revolt against the constitutional government," Dieguez said. "But," he added, "they will weep at the outcome."

Dieguez arrived from Guadalajara
and spent several hours in conference with President Carranza at the capitol. After receiving instructions from the president he left for the north to rejoin his troops.

Carranza apparently has placed the entire conduct of the campaign in the hands of Dieguez. Some observers believed the safety of the administration depended upon the success of the Dieguez operations.

(By Ralph H. Turner.)
Mexico City.—Members of the Sonora legislature and others participating in the alleged secessionary movement in that state will be regarded as rebels and immediate action taken accordingly. It was learned officially last night.

General Dieguez, commanding federal troops which were prepared to enter Sonora when the state first protested such action, was to arrive here
tonight from Guadalajara.

He was called by President Carranza to confer on plans for a campaign against the Sonora forces.

Want Compromise.
The president also has called to the capital Governor Cantu of Lower California, who was expressed his loyalty to the government. Cantu probably will be asked to take a leading part in the movement to suppress the incipient revolt.

A movement for mediation was started today by a group of prominent citizens of Sonora who were in the capital. They were headed by Roberto Pasquera, former Mexican financial agent at El Paso and Washington, and widely known in the United States. Pasquera asked an audience with President Carranza.

There is only one hope for salvation from national disaster," Pasquera said in an interview with the United Press. "That is mediation or compromise."

If the president grants us an audience we will propose that Governor De La Huerta (of Sonora) come to the capital for a conference. The governor is willing. Then we will suggest that the government withhold troops from Sonora until they actually are needed there.

Sonora Is Determined.
"Should that be agreed upon I am confident the Sonora government will modify its attitude toward one of recognition of the federal government.
But if the federal government refuses
I am fearful of the consequences,
because the people of Sonora are unanimously behind the legislature."

"There are 12,000 armed men in Sonora who will resist to the last."

Both General Alvaro Obregon and General Pablo Gonzales, rival presidential candidates, were scheduled to testify in the case of Robert Cejudo, former bandit leader in Vera Cruz, at this afternoon's session of the court martial trying the bandit.

Oil Concessions Safe.
Obregon was charged with conviction with the bandit, whom the government alleges Obregon attempted to get to delay surrender until after the presidential election.

Large oil concessions, awarded American companies in Sonora, probably will not be affected even if the state succeeds in separating itself from the republic, it was believed here today.

Representatives of the Marland interests of Pittsburg, Pa., and Oklahoma, pointed out that General Calle, one of the Sonora leaders, was minister of industry and commerce
at the time Marland was given concessions under the recent federal decree.

Strike Adds To The Burden Of The Taxpayer

Loss of $3,000,000 a Day Caused by Walk-out Will Have to Be Repaid by Public Under Guarantee Clause of Railroad Bill

(By Ralph H. Turner.)
By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—The nation-wide railroad strike is costing the railroad companies $3,000,000 daily in revenues. Director Julius H. Parmelee
of the bureau of railroad economics,
estimated today.

The total loss to the roads thus far,
counting only the six days during which the strike has had nation-wide effect, is at least $18,000,000, not counting losses from damage to commodities.

The public must make up this entire loss to the railroad in taxes, officials pointed out today, to insure the roads a return of 5 1/2 per cent under the guarantee clause of the Esch-Cummings act.

"The $3,000,000 daily loss in revenues represents only a fraction of the entire strike cost," said Parmelee.
"The roads will have increased operating expenses for the strike and millions will have to be spent later to pay for goods lost and damaged. I should not be surprised to see the net operation revenues (margin over operating expenses) reduced by fifty per cent."

Senator Cummings announced the interstate commerce commission would meet early and rush confirmation of the nine members of the railway labor board nominated by President Wilson.

Officials of the Baltimore and Ohio
and other roads here assured Washington strikers they would use their efforts to get the labor board to take up wage demands immediately after its organization. On this assurance 1,000 Washington strikers were back at work and train service was normal
in Washington.

Republican leaders who left the senate chamber during the secret session, said confirmation could be expected during the afternoon altho they could give no idea how long the debate might continue. Most of the discussion centers around the men named as labor representatives on the board.

From an official source the following statement was made:
"The moving force behind the strike is the communist international working through the J. W. W. and its organizers in the United States as one step in the well known revolutionary plan of the communist party."

Palmer immediately after the cabinet meeting held a long conference with Assistant Attorney General C.
B. Ames and Special Agent Hoover in charge of investigations into radical propaganda.

Important arrests are expected late today by justice department officials.

U. S. TO PROBE SLAYING OF AMERICAN IN GERMANY

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—A "very searching investigation" will be made by the United States into Germany's explanation that Paul H. Demott, American, was shot while trying to escape from prison. It was learned today at the state department.

This announcement was made shortly after the government received confirmation of the report that Demott has been killed by the Germans.

Demott was accused by the Germans of participating in radical activities. He was sentenced to death, according to reports here, but the German government in response to a request by the American representative in Berlin, agreed to delay his execution. Meanwhile, however, it is alleged by Berlin that Demott tried to escape from prison and was shot by guards.

MOOSEHEART AND ITS WORK PRAISED AT BIG BANQUET

NEARLY 200 MEN ATTEND HUGE BANQUET AND MEETING OF MOOSE LODGE LAST EVENING

The membership campaign now being conducted by the Appleton lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose was given a big boost at a meeting and banquet Tuesday night. Following a brief program at Moose hall, a banquet was served to 193 men, including 15 prospective members, at the Y. M. C. A. The program included addresses by D. V. Hart, prelate of the Wisconsin lodge; W. S. Dyer, dictator of the Fond du Lac Loyal Order of Moose; and several numbers by the Moose quartet, consisting of Thomas Potter, Merrill Latham, George Schneider and Ralph Potter, which made a big hit with the crowd. Robert Abendroth, dictator, presided. The Rev. F. L. Schrockenberg led the prayer service.

Twenty-two applications for memberships have been reported by campaign workers to date, according to an announcement by the secretary. The meeting last night aroused considerable enthusiasm and it is expected that the remainder of the campaign will see a new mark set by the workers.

The speeches, intended principally for the benefit of the prospective members present, brought out the principles of Moosedom, and the ideals and standards maintained by the lodge. Considerable stress was laid on the work conducted by the lodge at Mooseheart, where the children of departed members are trained and educated for life's battle.

The meeting last night was one of the largest lodge gatherings ever held in the city. So great was the crowd that many of the banqueters ate apart in the cafeteria. It is said that the banquet was the first ever held at the Y. M. C. A. at which it was impossible to take care of the crowd in one room.

"There are many things in Moosedom and Mooseheart from its inception to its present state that reveal the love of God and neighbor," said Prelate Hart in his address.

"The moose, the emblem of our order, stands strong and majestic, jealously guarding his young and ever ready to come to the defense of the weak. He exemplifies our motto, 'One for all, and all for one.' A member of the Moose must live a life that is a shining mark."

"The Moose, as a fraternal organization, like the animal it is named for, seeks the heights with mighty strides, and takes the stand high among the clouds."

"Back of the Moose stands a creative power, back of the Moose stands God, because we obey the mandates of His Son. 'As much as ye do unto the least of My brethren, so do ye unto Me.' That is the true meaning of Moosedom."

"Mooseheart is the goal that's new—Mooseheart is the things that haven't been done before," said the speaker, telling of the organization of the Illinois institution of the order established by John J. Davis. "Mooseheart will become in a few years one of the most widely copied institutions in the world," asserted the speaker.

"The Moose as a fraternal organization has everything that every other fraternity has, and one thing more. It has Mooseheart," Mooseheart, the speaker explained, is the institution where children of departed members are given a high school education and vocational training and equipped to battle life.

"Mooseheart has an $85,000 high school, second to none in the United States. The children have the opportunity of learning any of twenty-two trades."

"The junior and senior assemblies aid in maintaining the discipline of the child and give him legislative training. Erring students are tried before the assembly, and punishment meted out as the evidence demands. Usually this is turning the student's play hours into work hours. Solomon said, 'Spare the rod, and spoil the child.' But Solomon is not wiser than Mooseheart."

"Mooseheart cares for the health and spiritual welfare of the children who go there. Mooseheart follows the principle of the constitution, 'equal rights to all, special privileges to none.' There need be no fear that the soul of the child will be tampered with at Mooseheart. The influence of Mooseheart will be seen throughout the life of the children. 'Mooseheart is teaching people to know how to treat their fellowmen and how to become real patriots.'"

The address by W. S. Dyer of Fond du Lac, also dealt with the work of the order at Mooseheart. He explained the advantages presented to the children at the institution, and predicts that Mooseheart will be widely copied in a few years. The Moose have everything every other organization has, and one thing more, Mooseheart, he said.

"Children are trained to become real men and women at Mooseheart. They are taught a trade and given a high school education. Of the last class of boys, every one at the completion of his course at Mooseheart was able, if he chose, to go out into life as a skilled worker, capable of earning $35 a week at the start. High school boys are able to earn $35 a week."

The speaker recited two instances occurring in his home city which, he said, illustrated the advantages of membership in the Loyal Order of Moose, and the protection offered to the children by Mooseheart. A city official, not a Moose member, left his widow and three children practically destitute at his death. The result is separation of the family, and the adoption of the children by different people. Another man, of the Moose order, said in what were practically his last words that he was not worried about the future of his children, with Mooseheart ready to take them. "The arms of Mooseheart are always wide open to take the children who need protection," Mr. Dyer said.

STAR HURLER SIGNED FOR LOCAL BALL TEAM

Carl Fahlstrom Agrees to Cast Lot
With Appleton Team—Sylvester Promises Best Team in League

Carl "Cully" Fahlstrom, a right handed pitcher, has been signed by Dutch Sylvester, manager of the Appleton baseball team of the Fox River Valley league. Sylvester announced today.

Fahlstrom is one of the best amateur hurlers in "these here parts," and "Dutch" intends to give the youngster a thorough try-out. "Cully" has plenty of stuff and a good physique and shows every promise of making good.

Sylvester is confident that Appleton will be represented by a strong team this season. "We will have a good team, a team as good as any ball club in the league," he said today.

Money, and not players, is the fly in the ointment just now. Unless the fans get busy and shell out enough to get Appleton into the league—there will be no ball club.

Chicago, Ill.—Jazz bands, cabaret performers, automobile parades and aeroplane stunts featured the opening of the baseball season in the middle west today. More than a hundred thousand fans witnessed games staged by teams in the American and National leagues, and the American association.

Clear and cool, with plenty of sunshine was the outlook for the White Sox-Detroit premier here today. Charlie Comisky, Sox owner, rubbed his hands and said he looked for 35,000 at today's game. A fifty piece brass band was to entertain the fans. The old board of trade rosters club which always celebrated the opening of the Cubs season have gone over in a body to the Sox and journeyed to today's game in a trolley while a parade of several hundred autos followed behind.

Fifteen thousand fans were expected to see the Pirates and Cardinals clash at St. Louis. Mayor Kiel was to pitch the first ball while a jazz band and cabaret performers went through their antics during the game. At Cincinnati, the Cubs met the World's champions. Redland fans bought everyone of the 15,409 reserved seats and it was expected that 30,000 would see the game.

The American Association season opened at Kansas City with the Minneapolis Millers as the opposing team. Thirteen thousand were expected to witness the battle.

Eight thousand fans will see the Hoosier baseball premier at Indianapolis. Governor Goodrich will toss the sphere to open the game. Bands were a part of the festivities.

Milwaukee was expected to have a crowd of about 10,000 to see it show its wares. A big parade from downtown to the park where President

FANS MUST RALLY TO SUPPORT OF TEAM IF THEY WANT BASEBALL

APPLETON WILL DROP OUT OF LEAGUE UNLESS MORE IN-
CAMPAIGN

Whether or not Appleton will be represented in the Fox River Baseball league with a team this year depends entirely upon the support given the newly organized club in its efforts to raise sufficient money to

Hickey of the American Association will start the game by throwing the first ball and the Brewers' scrap to win a pennant will be on.

Before the game starts, catcher Gaston, former aviator was to fly over the park and drop 20,000 hand bills containing luck numbers entitling holders to baseball passes.

lease and equip a park, according to Harry "Dutch" Sylvester, who is to manage the team if one is organized. Appleton is the largest city in the league and it was believed that the required sum would be raised with less difficulty than in any of the others but the experience of solicitors thus far has been that donations of any consequence have been very hard to obtain. Several other cities in the circuit have raised much more than the $3,000 required here and are now well along with the work of organizing the teams.

Every effort is being made to interest Appleton millmen in the league and it is proposed to organize a league of mill teams which can use the ball park if mill men will donate sufficient money to make possible the establishment of a first class ball field. The league club is willing and eager to arrange a schedule for the mill teams and to make all other arrangements which may be necessary to put the industrial teams on their feet.

Manager Sylvester has announced that if returns by Saturday night do not indicate sufficient interest in the league he will wash his hands of the whole affair and Appleton will probably drop out of the circuit. It is believed there are hundreds of baseball fans here who would be willing to contribute toward the fund and to make it easy for them the sports editor of the Post-Crescent has agreed to accept checks at his office for the new club. Checks can be made payable to either the sports editor or to Harry Sylvester and they should reach the office not later than Saturday night.

Sylvester has announced that he has plenty of material lined up to make a strong team, one that will make the others hustle to remain in the running but that no effort will be made to organize a team until there is assurance that a suitable park can be equipped. The club has an option on property which can be leased for an indefinite term. Once the fence and grandstands are erected it will not be necessary to make another appeal for help.

NEW DOG TAX LAW MEETS OPPOSITION ON COUNTY BOARD

COUNTY SOLONS BELIEVE LAW IS AN IMPOSITION—LIBERTY WANTS HIGHWAY IMPROVED

A great part of this morning's session of the county board was taken up with a discussion of the new dog law which goes into effect May 1. After that time every farmer owning a dog will be required to pay a license of five dollars for a female and three dollars for a male. The law was passed by the last legislature to protect sheep and other animals.

Quite a number of members are opposed to the new law and look upon it as an imposition. The two Outagamie county assemblymen, C. B. Ballard and Anthony McConne, took opposite views concerning it.

The latter said it was passed for the purpose of protecting sheep, especially on wild lands. He said that 75 per cent of the sheep killed were destroyed by dogs instead of by wolves, as is commonly claimed.

The town of Liberty presented a petition for the improvement of highways. The taxpayers have raised a fund of $2,000 which will be increased to $5,000 by the county for the improvement of secondary roads.

The application of Joseph Christ for reappointment as janitor was read by the clerk and the chairman appointed a committee consisting of P. A. Gloudeiman, Henry Fuerst and D. J. Ryan to fix the salary for the coming year. Both the application and report of the committee will be acted upon later in the week.

The chair announced the standing committees. H. E. Brown, the new supervisor from the Sixth ward who was appointed by the common council last night to take the place of Henry Junge, took his seat after notice of his appointment had been read. The board adjourned until 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

FATHER SEUBERT, OLDEST PRIEST IN VALLEY, IS DEAD

FIRST PRIEST ORDAINED IN GREEN BAY DIOCESE DIES SUDDENLY AT ST. ELIZABETH HOSPITAL

The Rt. Rev. Andrew Seubert, chaplain of St. Elizabeth hospital and one of the best known Catholic priests of the Fox River valley died suddenly at five o'clock this morning at the hospital. Father Seubert had been suffering from heart trouble for some years, and although he felt quite well yesterday, succumbed to a sudden attack this morning.

The Rev. Father Seubert was born in Germany in 1846 and came to this country with his parents during his boyhood. His training for the priesthood was gained at St. Francis seminary, Milwaukee and he was ordained May 22, 1869 by Bishop Melcher, first bishop of the Green Bay diocese. Since then he has been pastor respectively of Greenville, Maple Grove, St. Francis, DePere and for over 25 years was pastor of St. Mary church, Menasha. The magnificent church and schoolhouse there are monuments to his energy and zeal for the salvation of souls.

Don't forget the Lawrence College Girls' Glee Club Concert at Lawrence Memorial Chapel, Thursday night at 8:30. Reserved Seats at Belling's.

Father Seubert's health failed in 1903 and he resigned his pastorate to become chaplain of St. Elizabeth hospital, where he became a close friend of the inmates. He retained the office of consultant of the diocese and has held this position of honor for 30 years.

The title of Domestic Prelate to His Holiness Pope Pius X was conferred on Father Seubert in 1910. The document from Rome dated July 2, 1910 made him a prelate of the household of the Pope with the title of Rt. Rev. Monsignor, which gave him the right to wear the purple. He was not only the oldest priest of the Green Bay diocese, but the first to be ordained there.

Hardly a year ago Father Seubert celebrated his golden jubilee at St. Mary church, Menasha, having been ordained 50 years back from May 22, 1869.

Definite funeral arrangements have not been completed, but it has practically been decided that requiem mass will be said for him Friday morning at St. Elizabeth hospital. The body will be taken to Menasha Saturday morning, where solemn requiem services will be held and will probably be brought back to Appleton for burial in St. Joseph cemetery.

Several brothers and sisters survive, among them Miss Lena Seubert, who has resided with him for years.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR DEATH IS IN DOUBT

F. M. Wilcox of the Wisconsin industrial commission, and Edward H. Bull, reporter, are at the courthouse today taking testimony in several personal injury cases. Those that came up this morning were Oscar Schmidt vs. Oshkosh Trunk company, Arthur Brockman vs. Fox River Navigation company, Arthur G. Cole, Jr. vs. George Banta Paper company, and Mary Coon vs. Kimberly-Clark company. The latter case occupied the greater part of this morning's session. It concerned Luther C. Coon, who met his death several months ago by being swept over the middle dam of which he was in charge. An effort was made to determine whether the Kimberly-Clark company, the Patten Paper Co., or both are to be held responsible for the accident and payments, if any are ordered. Further testimony will be taken at a later hearing. The cases to be taken up this afternoon are Hil-

The Aftermath of Flu
This is No. 1 of a series of advertisements, prepared by a competent physician, explaining how certain diseases which attack the air passages—such as Pneumonia, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Measles or even a long continued Cold—often leave these organs in an inflamed, congested state, thus affording a favorable foothold for invading germs. And how Vick's VapoRub may be of value in this condition.

Your doctor will impress upon you that following recovery from the active stage of influenza, there often remains an inflamed, congested condition of the air passages—throat, larynx, bronchial tubes and lungs.
Frequently the cough hangs on—soreness of the chest persists—you take cold easily and there may be obstinate catarrh. This condition is slow to clear up and if neglected may favor the development of pneumonia, or later on, serious disease of the lungs.
Such cases should continue under the care of their physician—should exercise moderately in the open air—eat plenty of wholesome food—avoid overwork and sudden chills.
Nightly applications of Vick's VapoRub may help nature to complete the process of repair. Because Vicks acts locally by stimulation thru the skin to draw out the inflammation, attract the blood away from the congested spots and relieve the cough. In addition, the medicinal ingredients of Vicks are vaporized by the body heat. These vapors are breathed in all night long, thus bringing the medication to bear directly upon the inflamed areas.
Vicks should be rubbed in over the throat and chest until the skin is red—then spread on thickly and covered with hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck and the bed clothes arranged in the form of a funnel so the vapors arising may be freely inhaled. If the cough is annoying, swallow a small bit of Vicks the size of a pea.
Samples to new users will be sent free on request to the Vick Chemical Company, 231 Broad Street, Greensboro, N. C.

ORGANIZING THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Chamber of Commerce comes into existence with a capable board of directors. The men selected for this important responsibility, and it is of exceptional importance the first year, are all representative citizens and successful in their individual pursuits. They are sound and level-headed business and professional men, experienced in the handling of problems closely allied with those which will confront the Chamber of Commerce. They are trained in executive direction and judgment. They know how to handle money and men productively and efficiently, and they are intimately familiar with the conditions and needs of Appleton which brought about the organization of the Chamber of Commerce. They will have the duty of electing a president and other officers and for this they are well qualified. It will also devolve upon this board of directors to employ a paid secretary.

The success of the Chamber of Commerce is not assured merely by the subscription of 750 memberships and a guaranteed income of close to $20,000 a year. This represents only working capital. Management, enterprise, energy, internal policies are the factors which will determine entirely the results to be obtained from this working capital. Personnel is the big question after all. A strong, aggressive, well-balanced executive is needed for president. He will have much to do with the progress made by the Chamber of Commerce, because it will depend upon his leadership for initiative. The paid secretary is the man who must do the real work, the man who must create work for others to a large extent, and he is a vital factor in the organization. But he must be properly controlled and properly guided and that can come only through a board of directors and officers who make the Chamber of Commerce the most important business in Appleton and who are thoroughly qualified for the responsibility.

We believe it will be generally agreed that the board selected Monday night is of this character and that it invites the confidence of every member in the Chamber of Commerce and of the public generally. Each member of the board is a believer in the usefulness and need of this organization and is enthusiastic over its possibilities and opportunities. They are men who want to make Appleton a better and greater city, and they are men who know how to go about it with the instrument that has now been placed at their command. The next steps will be the election of officers and the employment of a paid secretary. That done the Chamber of Commerce will be ready for business. Much interest naturally attaches to the choice of both the president and secretary and it may be taken for granted that the board will fill these positions only after the most thorough and careful consideration.

Too much must not be expected of the Chamber of Commerce this year. It will take at least twelve months for it to become an efficient working body. Many months will be required to shape policies and to outline activities. Visible results are not to be looked for immediately. The secretary must have plenty of time in which to become acquainted with Appleton, its resources, its advantages, its deficiencies and the fields which invite constructive development. This will take longer than the ordinary person realizes. Moreover, it is better to proceed slowly and be sure of the ground than to act hastily, thereby inviting misdirected effort and inconclusive and unsatisfactory results. The Chamber of Commerce will need to feel its way cautiously until it is on its feet, well established and knows what it wants and how to get it. We believe all of this is assured by the initial board of directors.

TURN THE LIGHT ON CAMPAIGN FUNDS

Who are financing the men in the bitter fight for the presidential nominations? It is a legitimate question, which voters are entitled to have answered. A candidate's supporters in politics who are willing to contribute money for his nomination may give a better idea of the candidate's supporters in politics who forms or declared views. Voters study biographies of candidates. Would it not be pertinent to include biographies of the men behind the candidates? There is a certain invisible power in American politics. Some of the time it controls, and some the time it does not, but when it does it is the most pernicious and insidious evil in our government. It would exert a wholesome influence to have this invisible power made visible. If it were we would have greater attention to the national interests in congress and better legislation all the way through. In recent years we have delivered a heavy blow at the lobbyist, but subterranean channels are still open to interests which have business of importance to transact with our lawmakers. There is more than one way to kill a legislative cat.

The same or similar interests continue to figure in our state and national elections. Notwithstanding corrupt practices acts have been put upon the statute books to prevent the dishonest use of money in elections, the use of money continues and even if not technically dishonest it frequently assumes proportions which are just as vicious in their consequences as is the purchase of votes. The senatorial scandal in Michigan is an example of this. Mr. Newberry's seat in the senate was purchased on the open market. If reports in the present presidential campaign are to be credited or if the direct charges of Senator Borah approximate the truth, vast sums of money are being employed to control the nominations for president. It has been alleged that the Wood campaign committee has a fund of $1,000,000 at its disposal. If so, where did it come from? The public has a right to know. It has been charged in the senate that money was being lavishly spent in behalf of other candidates. If so, where does it come from? The public has an absolute claim to the information.

There is a simple way to force the supporters of candidates for nominations into the light of day and it ought to be employed. Every candidate and every campaign committee should be compelled to publish periodically at close intervals the names of all contributors to campaign funds and how the money is spent. Eleventh hour information is of little value. Whatever good comes from publicity depends largely upon the time of publicity. Public opinion must have opportunity to generate its influence as it may be affected by publicity. Continuous open accounting of campaign funds can harm no honest man. Publicity of expenses might reveal a candidate's methods to his rivals, but if the best methods were available to everybody the public would be protected against an inferior candidate obtaining a nomination from superior methods.

In addition to this publicity we should have a limitation placed upon the amount of money that may be expended to secure nominations. Congress should enact legislation restricting expenditures to a reasonable sum. Senator Borah has proposed such a law. He would limit the money which may be spent in behalf of any presidential candidate. A law of that character would stop the very noticeable and growing tendency to go as far with money as possible in the securing of presidential nominations. It would place the poorer candidate, who might not have the support of great corporations and of wealth generally, on a more equal footing with rivals who were in favor with those interests. It would keep slush funds out of the race. It would make it less possible for selfish interests to control conventions or the nominations.

We ought to have legislation of this kind to govern the presidential contest this year. Congress ought to enact it immediately. There is special reason for desiring such a law at once because of the start which has been made in the use of money and the indications that no limit is to be placed upon campaign funds except what may be imposed by law or by policy. Every person who favors fairness, honesty and the national welfare desires and will approve publicity for campaign expenditures, and at a time and under circumstances which make publicity effective for the purposes intended.

Chrys and Jordan Spence Have Some Differences On the Spirit World

Katherine Miller's wish that her child might inherit its father's portion of the Lorimer millions was interesting, of course, but the Lorimers did not require it for their guidance. When Chrys enthused about it as an admonition made by Benjie's spirit she quite forgot that Mother Lorimer had already instructed our lawyer-friend, Martha Palmer, to make out the proper papers for the settlement of a great sum of money on Baby Babs. Mother and Daddy had agreed about it months since. Now that there was some danger that Daddy might never come home Mother took the matter in hand.

Concerning Baby Babs she said: "Although its parents were not married, the child is of the Lorimer blood quite as much as any child of Bob's or Jim's or Chrys' can ever be."

Mother had said this with her arm around me, as if she did not wish to hurt me, as if she hated to remind me that I had not supplied an heir for the Lorimer fortune. That fact came up every day of my life. Chrys referred to it more than once, and suggested that I look into the future, through the vision of some spirit control. I objected strenuously; in fact, the family was getting pretty tired of the seance habit. We had so much ouija dementia in the family for the next few weeks that we rejoiced when Chrys announced that her agents had found at last a nice tight little yacht. It was in San Francisco harbor, and she and Katherine Miller would start west at once.

Of course our Chrys has picked the finest thing of its class. Bob announced when he heard the name of the yacht, "The Blue Bird" was built for a western lumber king. She has made a dozen trips between San Francisco and Honolulu."

I have often wondered if Chrys realized that she was undertaking that voyage partly for the sake of concealing her heartache. Her affairs certainly moved pretty rapidly after she had had a certain lengthy interview with Jordan Spence. Of course no one can guess the details of that unhappy hour, but they must have been pretty awful. I should say. At any rate, Jordan Spence who is the most polite of men, fairly rushed from the house. He had to write Mother a little note the next day. And Chrys went straight to bed after that talk with her lover. She said that probably she had a touch of flu and she would like to be left entirely to herself, and the ministrations of a maid.

At the end of three days she came forth from her chamber looking like one risen from the dead. She never spoke of Jordan Spence and of course no one else dared to do so.

"If she insists on wrecking her happiness on her silly belief in spiritism nobody can save her," said Bob. "But I wish Spence had thrown her ouija board out of the window before he left."

"I've read of unhappy lovers who came to grief on account of their religious differences, but never, never before have I heard of a romance being shattered to bits for the sake of a few ghosts, more or less."

"Chrys is honest, at least," said her twin. "A lot of girls think a husband will stand for any kind of silly business after the wedding. They do not play fair. Some of them intend to sit down and wish their way through life—which means that the husband has got to hustle some. But you can bet that the lazy kind never give away their system—until they have the man tied tight."

"Poor Chrys will certainly pay dearly for her honesty. Maybe a trip around the world will cure her heartache."

"Here's hoping. It sounds like a big adventure, of course, for two girls to cruise around just as two men would do. But the dangers dwindle—only don't tell Chrys so—the dangers shrink quite a little bit when you remember that we can keep in touch with Chrys by wireless most of the time. Thanks to modern science Chrys can't lose herself on the seven seas, you know. If she could, I'd certainly object to her little project for rescuing her father."

Today's Poem
EDMUND VANCE COOKE

VICTIMS OF VESUVIUS

The victims of Vesuvius from immemorial time
Have seen the grim gods sweep away their cities
in their prime.
Have seen their stricken women mourn beside their stricken men.
Have seen their children driven to the scalding
seas, and then
Upon the burnt and buried sites have built their homes again.

And we—we world-wide victims of war's volcanic wrath,
Again and still again we built squat in his furious
path.
We strew the plains with villages and on the mountain's slope,
While still our eyes are blinded, while still we
gasp and grope,
In maddened pride we re-erect the City of our hope.

We call some men our "enemies," we call some others "friends."
And pack the world in parcels to serve our selfish ends.

We build our walls about us, we flaunt our flags
of fate,
We practice cries of conquest, we roll the drums
of hate;
Back our hands we whisper in the councilings
of state.

Yet 'tis not man's iniquity—the difference of a vowel!
We bar the ways of barter and boast our gains
and greeds.

We sport our golden manacles as savages their beads,
And "Unto him who hath!" intones our summary
of the creeds.

We build our own Vesuvius beneath our very feet,
Until the cauldron blasts us with its virulence
and heat.

We struggle each with each as long as self and soul are able,
We drift to "peace" together at some bickering Council Table.

And, returning to our ruins, we construct another Babel.

The Janitor

January, according to Roman reckoning, and ours—is the first month of the year. The name is derived from Janus, a primitive Italian deity.
He had two faces and was the doorkeeper
of heaven.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Wednesday, April 17, 1895.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Weiss, a daughter.

Mrs. E. M. Wilson left for Sheboygan to visit friends.

A little German band was going about the streets taking liberties with "After the Ball," and other musical fossils.

Charles Reitzner, proprietor of the Union hotel, was making important improvements to his property, which included a 34 feet addition which gave him eight extra rooms.

Miss Printha Trahern, daughter of W. C. Trahern of Grand Rapids, formerly of Appleton, and Albert Miller of Philadelphia were married at the Congregational church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Faville, who was assisted by Dr. Lamulis.

John S. Van Nortwick disposed of his interest in the mill of the Kaukauna Paper company to his brother, William M. Van Nortwick. The mill was to make bagging paper for the Western Paper Bag company of Batavia.

The trial of anti-toxine, the new specific for diphtheria, made in Appleton and vicinity, appeared to demonstrate beyond a doubt that the remedy was all that was claimed for it.

Joseph Barry, aged 25 years, died of pneumonia at a Marinette hospital.

Richard B. Watrous, associate editor of the Milwaukee Telegraph, was to be married the following day to Clara C. Noble of Milwaukee.

Bessie Whitman was bitten in the cheek while playing with a dog at the home of a neighbor.

Sheriff Baake and Undersheriff Walte went to Kaukauna, where they prevented a prize fight between Clune and McMahon, two local bruisers.

The matter of the contested seat from the Second ward of Seymour was settled by the county board in favor of F. R. Dittmar, and the board was organized with him as a member. His opponent was T. Chubcock.

THE PASSER BY

True wit is nature to advantage dress'd
What oft was that, but n'er so well express'd.

It is getting so nowadays that a paragraph concerning movie stars has to be published the same day it is written or their marital statu quo will be entirely altered and the erstwhile timely quip as stale as two-day-old parsnip.

There is one good thing about free verse; it hasn't increased in price like everything else in the country. It is just as free as it ever was.

If you wish to know why the price of coal is going up all the time it will be necessary to take a dip into higher mathematics. Suppose for the sake of argument, a coal miner was making $4 a day in 1916. He received a 10 per cent raise. Modest enough, and the advance in the price of coal was barely perceptible. He then received $4.40 per day. In the spring of 1917 he received another 5 per cent increase, which made his wage $4.62. In November of that year say he received a 2 per cent raise. He then received $4.71 per day. In 1918, however, the cost of living grew irksome and his wages were increased 15 per cent, thereby boosting the income daily to $5.42. On top of that came a 12 per cent increase making the total $6.07. In 1919, however, suppose another 10 per cent was demanded, making it $6.67, and following that came a demand for a 30 per cent increase, which boosted the pay roll $2 each, or each man drawing down $8.67. Then comes a measly 14 per cent raise which boosts the income to $9.82, and according to President Wilson's plan the latest raise is to be 27 per cent, or $11.47.

And you want to know why coal is going up.

(These figures do not pretend to be correct, but contain the general ideas, at any rate.)

The gnarled old tree by the well,
Little one,
Sings in the wind, and swings in the sun.

For violets asleep at her feet,
'neath the snow,
And she's brooding o'er them,
while winter finds blow!

And they slumber so well, they will not wake,
Till the soft rains come and the frost bands break!

I've harked to her well, as the day went by,
She has given to me her lullaby.

And though we are far from wind and flood,
I'll be your tree, my tender bud.

My heart shall sing for you, all thru the dark hours,
So you may slumber and wake as the flowers!

Ruth S. Park.

Maybe He Was Just Turning Over.

ed a decline made earlier in the day and by noon, corn was from 1/4c to 1/2c higher and oats a half higher. Reports that the French government was cancelling orders for large quantities of oats caused a sharp break in that market. Buying on the drop brought an upturn. The strike situation tended to make trade light and mostly local. May corn, up 1/4c on opening at $1.67 1/2 lost 1/4c later; July corn, up half on opening at $1.60 1/2, lost 1/4c in later trading. Sept. corn unchanged on opening at $1.55 1/2, remained the same. May oats, unchanged on opening at 95c gained 1/4c in later buying; July oats, up 1/4c on opening at 85 1/2 increased 1/4c. Provisions sold generally higher.

This breath-taking picture is the work of a great dramatist-interpreter of today's happenings—those events which are so big and world-shaping that mere newspaper accounts give us no grasp of them. "The Cup of Fury" is truly a great picture, a picture whose story will linger in your mind for months after you have seen it. Don't miss it!

RECREATION WORK TO BE DIRECTED BY A PAID SECRETARY

WOMAN'S CLUB MAKES ARRANGEMENTS FOR SECURING SERVICES OF TRAINED WORKER

As the result of action taken at last night's meeting, Appleton Woman's club will secure a trained secretary to take charge of the activities of the Recreation department. The action followed a recommendation by the board to that effect and the unanimous vote of the club members showed its general popularity.

The members who expressed themselves on the subject, following the announcement of the board's recommendation, were heartily in favor of the idea. In general, they felt that it was only an experienced worker who could do justice to a work of such scope and influence among Appleton girls. Mrs. Carl Schutz, chairman of the department, told in a delightful and interesting manner the birth of the idea of securing a professional to take care of the recreational work among Appleton girls, and her talk was supplemented by several impromptu speeches.

Must Raise Money
The question of financing such a plan was brought up, but Mrs. S. C. Shannon, chairman of the finance committee, stated that the committee felt that there was no doubt as to its ability to secure the necessary funds. The motion was carried that the finance committee raise the money to finance a paid worker.

The action taken last night is the highest step in the short history of Appleton Woman's club is to provide wholesome and delightful recreational activities for the girls and young women of the city and under the skillful management of a trained worker it is expected that the problem will solve itself. It is the first time that any organized effort in that direction has been taken in Appleton.

Want Home for Club
The scope of the Recreation department was further extended by empowering it to organize a junior department to which girls from 12 to 18 years will be admitted, under such regulations as the department shall see fit to make.

A home for the Appleton Woman's club was also discussed. It was voted that the house committee look for rooms to be used for offices and social work. Lawrence Conservatory has been under consideration for some time, but according to a report, the college is not yet ready to dispose of the building. The general sentiment urged that the club seek temporary quarters until such a time as the Conservatory will be available.

Zona Gale Coming
Several reports were made last night at the opening of the meeting. The plans for the year book were announced and each department asked to appoint a committee to take care of the work. A short announcement was made of the concert to be given in May by the Woman's Club Chorus under the auspices of the Appleton Woman's club. The club will share in the proceeds of the concert.

The next meeting of the club will be held April 27 at the Conservatory. Zona Gale, well known author, will be here to talk on "Citizenship." She was scheduled for last night's meeting but definite information has been received that she will be here for the next meeting.

The club year will close May 11 when the annual meeting will be held. Each department will be expected to make complete reports at this time.

HOME CONCERT OF GIRL'S GLEE CLUB TOMORROW EVENING

SPECIAL CONCERT IS ARRANGED FOR LAWRENCE GIRLS' APPEARANCE AT MEMORIAL CHAPEL

The Lawrence Girls' Glee club will give its home concert tomorrow night at Lawrence Memorial chapel. The club has just completed its three weeks' tour through the principal cities of Wisconsin and Michigan, the most successful trip ever made by the club.

The entire program, which is well chosen, varied and entertaining has received the greatest praise throughout the trip. Several new features will be introduced for the concert tomorrow night, including a medley of songs and a parody of "local color."

The club numbers which have taken best on the trip are "Will o' the Wisp" by Spross, "Indian Mountain Song" by Cadman, "Carmena" by H. Lane Wilson, "The Last Rose of Summer," the "Irish Melody," and "The Lost Chord" by Sullivan.

Special mention has been made in all newspaper reports of various solos, the readings and the industrial numbers.

WANT APPLICANTS FOR POSITION AS INCOMES ASSESSOR

EXAMINATION WILL BE HELD HERE SATURDAY TO PICK SUCCESSOR TO A. C. RULE

The Wisconsin Civil Service Commission has called an examination to be held at the Y. M. C. A. building at Appleton at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, April 17 for the position of assessor of incomes for Outagamie and Waupaca counties made vacant by the resignation of Albert C. Rule. The initial salary is from $1,600 to $2,000, and traveling expenses, depending upon qualifications and experience, with prospect of increase if the right man is found. Residents of the district and candidates between 30 and 50 years of age are preferred, but these conditions are not binding, and will yield to superior qualifications.

The Tax Commission regards the Outagamie and Waupaca district as important and is anxious to have a good class of candidates. Experience in banking, insurance, law or accounting, or in public office having to do with taxation, is regarded as valuable training for the position. Selection will be made solely by merit test. Candidates for the position should apply to the Civil Service Commission for application blanks, but if notice of the examination is not received in time, applicants will be permitted to write without that formality.

TWO PRIESTS LEAVE ST. JOSEPH CHURCH

REV. FATHER WUNIBALD RECALLED TO GERMANY—PRIEST FROM ISLAND OF MALTA IS HERE

Several changes have been made in the personnel of the priests at St. Joseph Monastery within the last few weeks. Five priests are now in charge of the work there.

The Rev. Father Bernard, here for several months, has been transferred to Harlem, N. Y., where he will be connected with a Capuchin church. His successor has not been named.

The Rev. Father Wunibald, who came here four years ago from the Caroline Islands, where he served many years as a missionary, has been recalled to Germany and has already started for Europe. It is not probable he will return to America. Father Wunibald was forced to leave the Caroline Islands when the Japs entered the war.

Among the new comers at St. Joseph Monastery is the Rev. Father Francis Joseph, who comes here from the island of Malta in the Mediterranean sea. He was a canon in a church in Malta and came here to prepare for entrance into the Capuchin order.

GRADE SCHOOL BALL LEAGUE IS PLANNED

TEN SCHOOLS ARE TO TAKE PART IN BASEBALL, CUT TO BE ORGANIZED

Arrangements are now being completed by the boys' division of the Y. M. C. A. for the organization of a grade school baseball league. Eight schools, Lincoln, First Ward, Columbus, Franklin, Third Ward, Fourth Ward, Fifth Ward, and Zion Lutheran, have already entered teams. Teams from the parochial schools have also been invited to enter and it is expected that a ten team league will be organized.

Plans for the league, including a schedule, officials, and other matters, will be made at a meeting of the school principals together with team captains to be selected this week, at the Y. M. C. A. next Monday night.

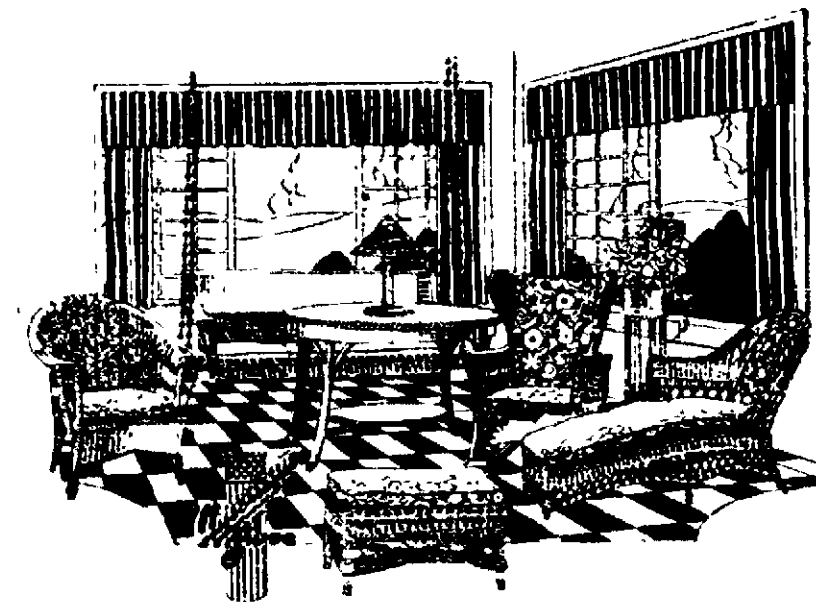

It is planned to start the league April 27 and continue through May. The boys' division will award a banner to the winning team. Considerable enthusiasm is being manifested in the organization, and the league gives every promise of success.

Miss Irene Amend has returned from Chicago and Milwaukee where she spent a week with relatives.

STATE GIDEONS TO HOLD BIG MEETING HERE MAY 8 AND 9

CHRISTIAN TRAVELING MEN WILL GATHER HERE TO DISCUSS WORK OF THE LAST YEAR

Christian traveling men from all parts of the state will gather here Saturday and Sunday, May 8 and 9 for the 12th annual convention of the Wisconsin Gideons. A program conducted mostly by the officers and members has been prepared, including devotional and business sessions and public meetings. A part of the plan for Appleton is the distribution of Bibles to four local hotels.

Since its inception the national Gideon organization has placed 427,000 Bibles in hotels of the United States and Canada. Funds will be raised here to place Bibles in the Sherman house, Appleton, Briggs and Northwestern hotels.

The program opens Saturday morning, May 8, with a meeting of the executive committee. In the afternoon there will be a business session at the Presbyterian church under the direction of S. E. Hill, Beloit, president of the Wisconsin Gideons. Reports will be given and officers elected. A banquet will be given at six o'clock at the First Methodist church, at which S. A. Fulton of Milwaukee will be toastmaster. Pastors, business men and Gideons will attend. From there the delegates will go to the First Congregational church where a camp fire meeting starts at 7:30 o'clock. P. M. Brink of La Crosse, will preside. There will be a short devotional service, including a solo by C. W. Brown of Oshkosh. G. F. Werner, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., will extend a welcome to the Gideons, and P. K. Schaefer, Milwaukee, will give the response. Then follow a series of camp fire talks by six members, among them W. T. Umbreit of this city. The Gideon male quartette, which usually merits a prominent place on the program, will sing at the close.

Sunday's sessions will open with a consecration service from nine to 10 o'clock at the Evangelical church, led by G. A. Briggs, Baraboo. Gideons will then attend various church services, one being delegated to speak briefly before each congregation presenting the Bible work which has such a prominent place in the organization's activities.

The general public will be invited to the mass meeting planned for three o'clock in the afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. C. W. Brown of Oshkosh and the male quartette will furnish the music, and two addresses will be given, one by J. Harry Humphreys, Huntington, W. Va., national president, and the other by G. A. Briggs of Baraboo. A union meeting of the male members of the young people's societies will be held at the First Congregational church at 6:30 o'clock, and will be directed by A. E. Mielenz, Milwaukee. A similar meeting for young women will be held at the First Methodist church, with Mrs. B. C. Howell of Madison in charge. Addresses will be made by Mrs. J. Harry Humphreys and Mrs. J. M. Crittton, Madison.

The convention will close with a union meeting of all churches at 7:30 o'clock in the Methodist church. S. E. Hill, president, will preside. Bible work will be presented following a brief devotional and musical service. The convention address will be made by A. B. T. Moore, Chicago, national secretary. The Gideon circle will be then formed and the hymn, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again" sung.

HODGINS ELECTED BOARD CHAIRMAN FOR ANOTHER YEAR

HORTONVILLE MAN GETS ALL BUT TWO VOTES — HOLDS SHEPHERD CHARGE STARTS NOW

Douglas Hodgins of Hortonville, was reelected chairman of the county board at the opening session Tuesday afternoon, receiving thirty-three ballots of the thirty-five cast. When the result was announced there were repeated calls for a speech to which he responded in a few well chosen words.

The meeting was called to order

Douglas Hodgins

by Herman J. Kampe, county clerk, who also read the call. The members then proceeded to the election of a chairman to succeed Mr. Hodgins whose term had expired, and Henry Fuerst of New London was called to the chair. It was decided to elect the chairman by ballot and only one ballot was cast. D. J. Ryan was selected as vice chairman, the clerk being instructed to cast a unanimous ballot in his favor.

The rules governing the board were then taken up for consideration. Those of previous meetings were read and the only change made concerned the standing committees. At the November and February sessions an effort was made to have members rotate on the committees, one new member being appointed each year on committees of three or four members and two on committees of five or more members.

NEW DAM WILL SUBJECT STEVENS POINT TO FLOODS

Fear is Expressed That Retaining Walls Will be Necessary to Protect City if Construction Job is Carried Out

Stevens Point—Strong protest against the proposal to raise the head of the Jackson Milling company's dam here, unless protective measures are taken, was voiced at a hearing of the state railroad commission here. The proposed construction of a concrete road along the west bank of the Wisconsin river north of here was also discussed at length. In registering protest against the plans of the milling company, and the proposed construction of the road along the river, which would form a dike or dam, preventing the Wisconsin overflow into the lowlands in time of flood, Clinton B. Stewart of Madison, a consulting engineer, presented facts and figures which showed conclusively that if the dam were heightened and the road constructed, the city of Stevens Point would be in constant danger of flood from the Wisconsin river. He stated that to protect the city in that case it would be necessary to build a retaining wall on the east bank to prevent its overflow, in time of high water. The dike and retaining wall will be needed only within the city limits.

NEIGHBORS SAVE PASTOR AND WIFE FROM COURT TRIAL

FAILING TO AGREE, THEY CALL IN NEIGHBORS TO ACT AS JURY—VERDICT IS SEPARATION.

City Hall Cochran, special to Post-Crescent:—Laverpool, N. Y. A selected group of three neighbors has decided that the Rev. W. W. Brunk, pastor of the First Methodist church, and his wife, whom he married years ago, shall separate.

As was agreed before the meeting was called, the pastor and his wife signed the decision and have separated.

Unable to settle their domestic troubles themselves, and not wishing an airing in the divorce court, Rev. Brunk and his wife went together to Justice of the Peace Jolsen for advice. He suggested that the Brunks' own neighbors settle the problem.

It was decided that three friends should sit on the "jury," hear both sides of the case and hand down a decision which both Brunk and his wife agreed to abide by.

Pastor's Parlor Is "Court."

The hearing took place in the parlor of the clergyman's home. While the three children of the Brunk family, Lillian, 20, a sophomore at Syracuse University, Alfred, 16, a student in high school, and Gifford, 7, were waiting in the dining room, Rev. and Mrs. Brunk told their stories.

First they were questioned separately and then a joint hearing was held.

Lillian was called to testify. "Daddy and mother cannot seem to agree on some things," was all she would say.

Then the neighbors deliberated alone and pronounced their decision, that the couple would be—for the time being, at least—better off apart.

The next day Mr. and Mrs. Brunk called together at the office of George B. Dolsen and signed an agreement upon the terms of their situation. The paper read that Mrs. Brunk should take their youngest son, Gifford, and go to live with her bachelor brother, John Battle of Pensacola, Fla.

Her husband was to pay her $2,000—$1,500 to be raised by placing a mortgage on the Brunk homestead and $500 in cash at once.

After signing the agreement the couple returned to the Brunk home where Mrs. Brunk prepared the supper. She straightened up their little home and then left on the midnight train, accompanied by her little son and her brother.

"I believe that our neighbors arrived at the right decision—at least for the time being," says Rev. Brunk. "It is probably the best and most sensible way out of misunderstanding."

When I arrived the pastor was cooking his own dinner.

Rev. Brunk called attention to a life-sized painting of his wife on the wall of their living room.

"That is a good picture of her," he said, as he sat and gazed on it thoughtfully.

Alfred, the 16-year-old son, explains that he is ready to help dad keep house.

"There is one thing I would like to understand," said the lad. "That is that there is not one breath of scandal on either side. I believe they will be back together soon—they are very fond of each other."

The three jurors have virtually the same comment to make, regarding their service.

"We have done what we thought right. We have tried to be 'friends and neighbors' in more than just name."

MRS. R. T. BUTTS, of Kansas City, who says her life was miserable for two long years before she began taking Tanlac. She now declares she is enjoying the best of health and that she has gained twenty pounds.

"If it had not been for Tanlac I would still be a sick woman, so I feel like I ought to tell everyone what this wonderful medicine has done for me," was the sincere statement made recently by Mrs. R. T. Butts, 1924 Troost Avenue, Kansas City, Mo.

By the help of Tanlac I have gotten rid of a severe case of nervous indigestion that had made my life miserable for the past two years. I could not eat anything without suffering afterward. The gas on my stomach would rise up into my chest and press on my heart and at times would almost cut off my breath. My nerves were so upset that the least unexpected noise would almost distract me. I seldom slept well and was so nervous I would often roll and toss until after midnight and what little sleep I did get seemed to do me no good. I was also a great sufferer from headaches and would often get so dizzy I would have to hold on to something to keep from falling.

"One day I happened to see a testimonial for Tanlac, describing a case like mine, so I bought a bottle and before I had finished it I began to feel just like a different person. Those terrible headaches disappeared and my appetite returned. When my first bottle was gone I got another and I kept on improving until now I can eat just anything I want and I never suffer any more from indigestion. I am not the least bit nervous and rest well at night and never know what it is to have a headache or a dizzy spell."

"Tanlac has not only relieved me of my suffering, but I have actually gained 20 pounds in weight and have not enjoyed such good health for years. Tanlac is certainly a wonderful medicine and I will always feel grateful for what it has done for me. I want to recommend this medicine to all my friends because I believe it will benefit anyone who is suffering as I did."

Tanlac is sold in Appleton by John E. Voigt, F. O. Town, Shiocton; Dr. J. M. Sattler, Bear Creek. adv

JOHNSON INTENT OF DRIVING GAMBLERS OUT OF BASEBALL

AMERICAN LEAGUE PRESIDENT NAMES CLAY FOLGER AS HEAD OF ASSOCIATION'S SLEUTHS

(Special to Post-Crescent) Cleveland—Dan Johnson is intent on stamping out gambling in the American League this season. It matters not whether it be players or spectators, Johnson has declared war and an army of detectives will be in the employ of the league.

It is more than likely that Clay Folger, for 14 years chief of police and detective at League Park in Cleveland, will be in charge of the small army of detectives who will be present at every ball game and besides will keep a watch on any players under suspicion.

Folger has practically run the gamblers out of the Cleveland stands. He put the racetrack touts and pickpockets out of business in Cleveland. "We generally have five or six men in the stands every afternoon," said Folger. "If they hear bets being made they quietly inform the gambler that he is requested to leave the park. His money is refunded at the gate."

That same system is the one Folger would employ in cleaning out the rest of the parks. He would employ only local detectives, though.

Folger has been approached on the subject, but no definite agreement has been reached. He loves the game and would like to see it purged of all gambling. For that reason he probably will accept the responsibility. It is a big order, but Folger should be big enough for the task.

"Have you ever watched the players?" Folger was asked. "Oh, yes, we've watched players same as the spectators," he said, "but in 14 years I've never discovered a bit of crookedness in any member of a Cleveland team."

That is a big boost for the game in face of all that has been said about gambling the past winter.

Folger is inclined to blame the professional gamblers and the "small bet" fans for all the fuss that has been stirred up. And he thinks the fight to clean up baseball should be started in the stands where these fellows gather.

Folger is head of a big detective agency in Cleveland. Baseball has been his hobby. He went south with the team last year.

FINE FOR STENOGRAPHS BUT TENANTS—WOW!

(Special to Post-Crescent) Shanghai—Here's a stenographic heaven. Typists are being paid $7 an hour in gold. But it isn't heaven to be tenant here. Business office rent from $200 to $500 gold and desk room costs $100 a month.

BUY YOUR COAL DIRECT FROM MINE—BIG SAVING

The high cost of coal is a thing of the past! At least, there are no complaints on this account—since the removal of government restrictions—among those who have learned how to buy coal. The way to buy coal is to get it direct from the mines. This saves several middlemen's profits. It saves hauling expenses. Anyone can now buy at mine prices, whether a railroad buyer or one who uses only ten or fifteen tons a year. This has been made possible through a plan evolved by a large and old-established concern, THE BERNICE COAL COMPANY, with main offices at 440 Comstock Building, Chicago.

This company has thousands of customers in various sections of the United States who receive all of their coal direct from the mines. These customers are pleased not only because of the many dollars they save every year, but also because of the quality of coal they are getting. Many write that they never before had coal that makes so little dust, that burns so well, leaving so few ashes. If you are a coal user—whether you use hard or soft coal, much or little—it will be greatly to your advantage to write the Bernice Coal Co. at once for prices, stating kind and quantity of coal you use. adv.

STRENGTHEN GUATEMALA TROOPS FIGHTING REBELS

By United Press Leased Wire Washington.—Five thousand Guatemalan government troops are now on the march from Solola, Los Altos and northern points of the country to strengthen the forces of President Estrada Cabrera which are besieging the rebellious city of Guatemala, according to the Guatemalan legation here today.

Cabrera is said to have a force of 5,000 commanding the city from the hills of Matamoros, San Jose and La Palma.

NAVIGATION CLOSED; CANAL BANK BREAKS

Navigation on Fox river was officially declared once yesterday, but so far no craft of any kind has passed through the locks. The locks and draw-bridges have all been put in order, however, in anticipation of a busy season.

It was announced this morning that because of a break in the right bank of the canal between Little Chute and the second locks this morning, that portion of the canal will be closed to navigation until repairs are made.

Lee Thompson, who has been employed in Milwaukee for some time, will move his family to that city May 1.

For quick action a pistol holster has been patented that opens its entire length when a weapon is withdrawn.

Stage

Hedda Gabler

Madame Borgny Hammer, the famous Norse actress, who will appear in Lawrence Memorial chapel on Saturday, April 17, in Hedda Gabler, one of Ibsen's most powerful plays, came to America with a rich dramatic background. Since she was a little child she had an instinct for theatricals and the great world of the stage, and her attachment was developed steadily through wide reading of the best playwrights and association with the choice spirits of the theater.

Most prominent among the influences which perfected her art was an extended engagement with a select company of players in the National Theater of Christiania. Training in the National Theater is a distinction that places Madame Hammer among actresses of the first rank, for such a theater demands the best of everything.

Tea for Three

"Tea for Three," 401 Cooper McGraw's high class comedy which proved the most successful play of its kind produced in New York last season will be seen at the Appleton Theatre on Thursday, April 15, with a cast of super excellence.

This comedy will be seen here exactly as it was seen at Maxine Elliott's Theatre, New York, where it ran for more than an entire season.

In "Tea for Three," which he calls an angle on the triangle, Mr. McGraw has given the theatre one of the brightest plays ever written by an American. The story is strictly modern and despite the fact that it deals with what finally proves to be a trifling incident in the lives of several thoroughly nice people, it is sensationally dramatic throughout.

Arthur Middleton

On Friday evening, April 16, at Lawrence Memorial chapel, the ninth number of Appleton's Community Lecture and Artists Series will be given. The committee in charge feels that this is the greatest of the concert numbers. Arthur Middleton, bass-baritone, will make his first appearance before the people of Appleton.

Arthur Middleton, the eminent bass-baritone of the Metropolitan Opera company, was born at Logan, Iowa, and is an alumnus of Simpson College at Indianola. He began his career as a church singer at fourteen while attending college, and made his first appearance as an oratorio singer at nineteen. So pronounced was Mr. Middleton's success as a singer of oratorio that he was called to the Third Presbyterian church of Chicago as soloist. After a number of years at this church he was retained by the Oak Park Presbyterian church—the highest paid church position in Chicago which place he held

Simple Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tip.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

until he came to New York to join the Metropolitan Opera Company. Mr. Middleton enjoys the distinction of being the only singer ever engaged for twelve consecutive performances with the Apollo Club of Chicago.

COOPER TO RESUME PRACTICE IN RACINE

Racine, Wis.—Henry Allen Cooper, former congressman from the First district, announced today that he would return to Racine and open a law office within the near future. He has been located at Washington, serving as a member of the joint commission of reclassification of position standards of salaries.

Up to the time of his defeat for election to congress, which occurred two years ago, Mr. Cooper had represented the first district of Wisconsin in the national house for thirty years.

WANT TO ESTABLISH A HEALTH CENTER HERE

It has been suggested to the city that the health department co-operate with the health activities of the Red Cross looking forward to establishment of a health center similar to that in Green Bay. This would mean the grouping of the services of the full time deputy health officer, school nurse, visiting nurse and Red Cross nurse who would then occupy the same building. The new health center at Green Bay is working out satisfactorily and has been inspected by several Appleton people who are at the head of the movement here.

ALLEGED BIGAMIST IS GUARDED AFTER MAKING TWO ATTEMPTS TO END HIS OWN LIFE

Los Angeles, Cal.—Richard Huitt, of many aliases, alleged bigamist, was guarded in a hospital today, recovering from wounds inflicted upon himself Saturday and yesterday.

Officers said they had identified seventeen wives, of whom five were said to be missing.

The police said they had learned of wives in Spokane, Seattle, Santa Monica, Cal., Ranger, Tex., Alberta, Canada, and Los Angeles.

Huitt was arrested here Saturday by two deputy sheriffs, who sought information concerning the disappearance of Mrs. Louise Hilton, whom he married in Seattle. No formal charge was made against him.

He informed officers papers in a safe deposit box in San Diego would clear him of suspicion, and the officer took him there. As the party left, the train Huitt slashed his throat with a pocket knife, the officers said. He was taken to a hospital and, officers said, slashed his wrists late yesterday. His wounds are not considered dangerous.

GIRL WINS PROMISE SUIT AGAINST FORMER STUDENT

Madison, Wis.—Cora Doubleday, 20, daughter of Albert E. Doubleday, carpenter, has won $10,000 damages in a breach of promise suit in Omaha against Thomas J. Brown, former student at the university. The girl alleged Brown was the father of 2-year-old Katherine, whom she is now seeking to support on a farm near Minneapolis.

The romance started here three years ago when Brown was a student, according to Mrs. Doubleday. Cora's mother. Cora was employed in a home where Brown was a frequent caller.
